UNDERWOOD TYPEWRITER.
Large Order Booked from Western Union Calls for Delivery of 10,000 Machines in Ten Months.
Boston—The order which the Underwood Typewriter Co. has just booked with the Western Union Telegraph Co. calls for delivery of 10,000 typewriters at the rate of 1,000 machines monthly. Shipments will be made from the company's Hartford plant.
Eight years ago the General Electric Co. placed an order for 800 machines, which up to that time was the record. The Du Pont Powder Co. likewise ordered a similar number.
This Western Union order was the result of competitive bidding on the part of the various typewriter manufacturers. The Remington Co. named $66 as the price at which it would supply the number desired. The figure compares with $81, the lowest price ever named by that company before. The regulation retail price for the Remington is $100.
The L. C. Smith Co. is understood to have bid $40 for furnishing 10 machines. The successful bid—that of the Underwood Co.—is understood to have been $32.50. Specifications called for the delivery of the entire number within one year. Further specifications called for a three year guarantee against repairs.

THE NEW CHINA.
A Talk With "Morrison of Peking."

By F. A. McKENZIE.
(Author of "The Unveiled East," etc.)

There is a widespread impression in England that things are in a bad way in the young Chinese Republic. We have heard so much of internal strife, of division between south and north, of outbreaks, and of coming foreign aggression that the man in the street can almost see, in his mind's eye, the country already divided, the Republic at an end, and the most wonderful political and social experiment of our generation brought to ruin.

A talk with Dr. Morrison, Peking correspondent of "The Times" and Political Adviser-elect to the President of the Chinese Republic, is a good cure for such pessimism. Dr. Morrison has a robust faith in the future of the commonwealth and a fund of indignation for the men who have been systematically spreading evil reports against it. He returned to England last week for a brief spell before taking up his new duties. He left China settling down with the authority of the Central Government surely growing, with trade everywhere reviving, and with the unwieldy armies of the revolution being gradually disbanded and absorbed in the civil population.

THE INNER COUNCIL OF THE REPUBLIC.
The story of how Dr. Morrison came to be called to the inner councils of this young Republic is interesting. Early this summer he had made up his mind to leave China and return to his native Australia. He had served his paper in Peking for fifteen years. He had, as we all know, earned world-wide recognition as the premier living authority on Chinese affairs. But he was worried, I shrewdly suspect, of being always the observer and recorder. So he was going home, possibly to take his part in public life there. His famous library was announced for sale. The old house—familiar to all in Peking—would know him no more.

Word of this reached President Yuan Shih-kai and his Cabinet. They sent him what, in my opinion, is the most remarkable invitation ever received by a European: Would he remain as Political Adviser to the Government? The spirit in which the invitation was tendered is best shown by the letter from the official confidential secretary to the President conveying the invitation.

"It (the formal document of the appointment) is neither an agreement, nor yet a contract, nor yet a compact. It is a free and spontaneous invitation from the Government and people of the Chinese Republic. It is the most honourable invitation ever extended by China to a foreign gentleman, and expressed in the most courteous language possible, as shown by the characters used."

I asked Dr. Morrison about the reported opposition in various quarters to his appointment, particularly from Germany.

"With regard to German opposition," he replied, "nothing could be more incorrect. In no other part of the world do Germans and English work more cordially together than in China. Their interests are alike commercial. They are associated in great loans, loans to the amount of many millions sterling, and in great railway works. The chief British bank has four German directors on its board. There is trade rivalry between Germany and England in China, but the people of no two nations in China work together more harmoniously. An immense number of British enterprises employ German agents, even the House of Armstrong."

THE INDISPENSABLE MAN.
My next question was about President Yuan Shih-kai and about the reports which have been spread in England of his physical and mental breakdown.

"I left Peking less than three weeks ago," Dr. Morrison replied. "I saw the President several times during the week or two before I left. I found him fit, in excellent spirits, and hopeful of the future, especially if he could come to terms regarding the much-needed foreign loan required for the reorganization of the Government. There is no truth whatever in the reports of his breakdown. He was probably under great strain and pressure, but he was not ill."

"He was the indispensable man who brought about the peaceful retirement of the Manchus. The greatest blow he received was on February 20, when the troops of the Third Division mutinied and looted considerable portions of Peking. There was great destruction of property but little loss of life. He has overcome that blow. The man who can calmly continue to smoke a cigarette during a bomb outrage that nearly killed him and killed some of his bodyguard near him is not a man to be easily dismayed."

"What of the stories that Japan and Russia are planning aggression against China?"

"There is no evidence of it whatever. Quite the contrary. Why should they be? The two Powers have observed strict neutrality throughout the whole crisis. They will defend the special rights they have, but I do not believe for one moment that they have any aggressive plans. During the whole of the recent trouble the action of both Powers has been a correct one. Japan can point out that the portion of China which has been least disturbed throughout the revolution has been Manchuria. The action of Russia has been quite consistent. She has taken no advantage of her territorial position and there has been no invasion of Chinese territory."

"There is no reason why China and her two neighbours should not be friendly. Negotiations regarding the frontier with Russia, which were under discussion at the outbreak of the revolution, will no doubt be resumed as soon as the provisional Government which is now in power in Peking has been succeeded by the permanent Government. Russian statesmen have disavowed the intention of adding to the burdens and responsibilities of Empire by any military adventure in Chinese territory."

Our talk turned to the great loan question. Dr. Morrison said:

WHAT CHINA WANTS.
"What China asks is that England shall not refuse to permit any but one bank to make financial arrangements with China. This suggestion of monopoly has hitherto caused considerable misgiving in China. China's resources are immense. Despite the upheaval China has admirably met her obligations. She has failed to meet the Boxer indemnity, but arrangements are being rapidly made to enable her to resume these payments. She needs foreign financial assistance and admits the necessity of engaging foreign expert advisers, but any obligation entered into must be passed by the Advisory Council, and this body will never agree to foreign interference with internal financial administration. No doubt satisfactory arrangements can be made for a foreign loan. But it is somewhat grotesque and naturally excites distrust when borrowing nations like Russia and Japan insist upon participating equally with wealthy countries like England, France, Germany, and America, whose aims in China are purely commercial, in lending money to China. Naturally the terms of such a consortium must be onerous, for they must be equally acceptable to each member of the group, even to the nation that has to borrow the money in England to re-lend it to China at a profit."

"It is impossible to know the resources of the country and the attitude of the people and not to be hopeful," concluded Dr. Morrison. "The rising tide gives the lie direct to the stories of universal anarchy. The Manchus party has disappeared, and to talk about it is to talk about what does not exist. China is making her way through her troubles into another sea."

DR. MORRISON ON CHINA.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, September 23.
Dr. Morrison, interviewed by Reuter, pointed out that the growth of national and patriotic sentiment in China in recent years had been accompanied by anti-foreign feeling. He denied that the opposition to the Six Powers Loan was anything but the natural desire of China to be mistress in her own house and to the action of the Powers forbidding China to borrow except through the banks, which would thus be given a monopoly. This had naturally excited mistrust, and it would be most unfortunate if the Government persisted in their policy with reference to the Six Powers Loan.
China, he argued, had kept her obligations during the Revolution and had displayed resources and ability to deal with a most serious situation. She ought to receive every encouragement and be unhampered in her work of regeneration. Dr. Morrison emphasised the urgency of meeting the railway requirements, and mentioned that the linking of Burma and Yunnan Province and generally the railways of any part of China would be very remunerative in view of the richness and fertility of the country.

THE ULSTER COVENANT.
NO COMPROMISE.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 22.
The Duke of Abercorn presided at a demonstration in London today. Sir Edward Carson had anyone signing the Covenant to beware of going back on the Covenant, for there would be no compromise and no surrender.
Mr. F. E. Smith said the Unionists of England were with the men of Ulster, come what may.

ATTACK BY NATIONALISTS.

Nationalists attacked the procession escorting Sir Edward Carson to the railway station at Londonderry. The police dispersed the mob. Two policemen and four bandmen were injured by stones being thrown.

WRECKING THE LIBERAL PARTY.

Mr. William O'Brien, speaking at Cork, said that the Insurance Act was steadily wrecking the Liberal Party and Home Rule with it. The Redmondite now realised that their policy and tactics had failed and would only double in five years the excessive taxation borne by Ireland.

SUFFRAGETTE'S SUCCESSFUL HUNGER STRIKE.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 22.
The suffragette Mary Leigh, who was last month sentenced to five years' penal servitude for her part in the outrage in Dublin Theatre on the occasion of the visit of the Premier to Ireland, has been released in an emaciated condition, having refused food for 44 days. She had to be lifted from a taxi-cab to an invalid chair.

IMPENDING TROUBLE AT SAMOS.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 22.
Reuter's correspondent at Paris wires that a telegram received from Smyrna states that 350 Cretans have landed at Samos and are marching towards Vathy, where a Turkish garrison is stationed.
An immediate attack is considered probable, and France is sending the cruiser Rainier from Canes.

EAST AFRICAN DEVELOPMENT.

BRITISH ENTERPRISE.
(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 22.
The Daily Express states that Captain Morrison, a former Member of Parliament, has been purchasing immense tracts in British East Africa. He is credited with having invested £1,000,000 in Nairobi.

ANGLO-AUSTRALIAN SHIPPING.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 22.
A meeting has been held in London of prominent Australian citizens and British shipping representatives who discussed the Anglo-Australian shipping congestion. One speaker said that 15,000,000 people were asked quickly to bring the population up to 20,050,000, which they regarded as the minimum of safety. Therefore, a big transport development was required. If British companies would not rise to the occasion then Australia would look elsewhere.
[Note.—The population of Australia is only about 5,000,000.—En. C. M.]

CANADA AND THE MANOEUVRES.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 22.
Mr. Hughes, the Canadian Minister of Militia, who is visiting England, attended the Army manoeuvres, and thus inaugurated an interchange of visits on the part of British and Canadian regular and territorial officers. He hopes it will extend so that officers will command units in each other's countries during periods in the annual training.

A BALKAN ALLIANCE
A GAVE SITUATION.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 22.
Reuter learns that though the reports of an Alliance of the Balkan States is unconfirmed, the Balkan Legations in London have admitted that a rapprochement exists. The situation is grave unless the public excitement in the Balkans is allayed by the reforms in the European provinces of Turkey. It is expected that the discussions between Sir Edward Grey and M. Sazonoff will have far-reaching results.

FIERCE FIGHTING IN TRIPOLI.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 22.
Reuter's correspondent at Rome wires that the Italians occupied an oasis near Manzur in Tripoli after a fierce two hours' fighting.
The Italian losses were 200 killed and wounded.

THE DEFENCES OF HONGKONG.

The Daily Mail states that General Sir Ian Hamilton leaves England in a few days to report on the defences of Hongkong and of the Treaty ports of China.

CHINA AND THE SIX POWER LOAN.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 22.
The advantages and disadvantages and the justice and injustice of supporting the Six Power Loan Group is the subject of much discussion in the Press and in financial circles.
The Standard denounces the Radical criticism of Sir Edward Grey with regard to this matter, declaring that Great Britain is the best friend China has in the Group and that she is better able to help her by being in the Group than out of it.

The Economist takes the opposite view, and emphasises the absurdity of Britain lending the bulk of the money and getting only one-sixth of the control. Nobody, it adds, would regret the collapse of the combination.

The Times, which has hitherto shown a tendency to support the Six Power Group, on Saturday admits that it is unlikely that the present monopoly, to which much legitimate exception has been taken, can be maintained much longer.

A message from Peking states that the Minister of Finance has categorically refused the terms of the Six Power Group's loan for providing strong security and supervision and the option of future loans during the ensuing five years.

OBITUARY.

SIR J. WHITAKER ELLIS.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 22.
The death of Sir John Whitaker Ellis, who was Lord Mayor of London in 1881-82, is announced.

THE SUFFRAGETTES AND MR. LLOYD GEORGE.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, September 22.
The English suffragettes, ignoring an appeal from their Welsh sisters, sent down a party to interrupt a demonstration of 5,000 persons attending Mr. Lloyd George's presentation of an Institute to Llanystumdwy, the village of his boyhood.

At the first interruption the crowd attacked the women, tearing off their clothes, pulling out their hair in bunches and trampling them under foot. One woman was flung over a hedge.

Mr. Lloyd George frequently shouted "Don't hurt her," and finally leapt upon a table and let the crowd in singing the Welsh Anthem.

In a speech he said he hoped the Institute would be the means of reviving the extinct Welsh drama, and provide a Welsh library, and lectures on Agriculture.

ANGLO-RUSSIAN RELATIONS.

CONFERENCE ANENT PERSIA.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 22.
M. Sazonoff was to confer with Sir Edward Grey at the Foreign Office on Saturday. Both Ministers will probably journey together to Balmoral, where there will be a series of conversations, to which the newspapers attach great importance. They anticipate the result will be the amplification of the entente chiefly affecting Persia.

The Times on Friday urged the revision of the Convention relating to Persia in order to give Great Britain freedom in the South similar to that exercised by Russia in the North.

The Daily News on Saturday denounced the "impudent cynical proposal to share the spoils," and said that the Liberals had been too long loyal to the Government in this respect and that they must insist upon the fulfilment of the agreement that Russia's withdrawal of her troops should be a condition of retaining Britain's co-operation.

The Daily Chronicle says that, however unwilling Sir Edward Grey may be to extend our responsibilities in Persia, the circumstances may be too strong. Definite action must be taken to prevent complete anarchy.

THE VICTORIA STATION INCIDENT.

The man who flourished the placard on the arrival of M. Sazonoff at Victoria Station, has been released. He was found to be a harmless crank.

THE PANAMA CANAL.

REPORTED RICH OIL FIELDS.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 22.
A message from New Orleans states that the Panama Canal Commissioners and American capitalists are making investigations into a reported rich field of oil in Colombian territory near the Canal, promising a solution of the fuel problem in the canal zone.

ARMED ROBBERY AT E O.

At one o'clock yesterday morning an armed robbery was carried out by five men at the village of E O, in the New Territory. The robbers, who were dressed in black, and wore white bands round their hats, and carried choppers, went to a house and demanded fifty dollars from the inmates, who, being terrified, handed over the money. The men got away.

TIGER AT STANLEY.

Shot at by Indian Sergeant.

The Hongkong tiger has again made its appearance. Indian police-sergeant 301 was patrolling on Saturday evening at 9.45 near the first mile stone from Stanley, on the way to Tatum Tuk, when he saw a tiger standing in the road. He drew his revolver and fired two shots at the animal, but probably fortunately for him, they both missed, and the tiger ran away up the hillside. The animal left a very plain spoor. It has not since been seen.

THE MACAO PIRATES.

Chinese and Portuguese Military Combine.

Action has already been taken under the agreement which, as exclusively reported in the "China Mail" at the time, was recently entered into by the Portuguese and Chinese authorities with the object of taking joint action to exterminate the pirates which are known to infest the islands in the neighbourhood of Macao. On the 10th instant a Chinese gunboat was dispatched from Canton with a force of two or three dozen soldiers, who arrived next day at the Portuguese Colony. There they were joined by Portuguese troops, and the combined force went early in the morning of the 20th, to Wong Kum, a place close to Colowan Island. The result of their action is at present unknown.

THE ALLAN WILKIE CO.

Close of Their Hongkong Season.

The Allan Wilkie Co. brought their season at Hongkong to a close on Saturday evening by producing the well-known drama "The Bells," which they preceded by a one Act play entitled "Tilda's New Hat." The latter play was a very amusing comedy depicting a phase of east-end London life, in all its drabness. Miss Hunter-Watts was remarkably able as Tilda, and the manner in which she expressed the pertness of the Cockney factory girl was very funny. As Tilda's mother, Miss Clanchy was a success, playing the part very naturally. Miss Vera Clanchy was not quite suited to the part of the Cockney girl, but, nevertheless, acted very well. Mr. Stafford Dawson was a very capable "typical east-end London youth, anxious to improve himself." The sketch, appropriately staged, passed off very well, and was cordially received.

"THE BELLS," the vivid drama with which the name of Sir Henry Irving will long be associated, as it was as Matthias in this play that England's great actor first made a distinct success. Personally, we are of opinion that practically any actor of even very limited talent could make a "hit" in the character, as the play abounds in dramatic situations in which Matthias is very much in "the limelight." Mr. Allan Wilkie's "Matthias" was a very able piece of work, sustained with great power and ability. Particularly good was he in the part where he was alarmed by Christian's cogitations on the Polish Jew murder. He was also brilliant in the "Court scene." Mr. Arthur Goddard's performance of the part of Christian was a praiseworthy piece of work. All the other parts were well-filled and the play evoked hearty applause.

At the conclusion, Mr. Allan Wilkie, in response for a "Speech," expressed his thanks for the reception the Company had received in Hongkong, and said that they hoped to return in January for eleven days, when they would play several Shakespearean plays and some of the dramas that had been presented during the present tour.

"As You Like It" was the Matinee performance on Saturday. It was delightfully played and greatly enjoyed by a fairly large audience.
